Professionals use this bit

Conquer's zig-zag segment cuts faster and smoother because of their design... not like some that have a small rib that wears off after the first hole. Design channels slurry better and reduces vibrations. A very high diamond concentration, it will cut almost anything. Use for general purpose. Very good for going thru rebar. You can see the barrel is made from tubing not a flat piece of steel like some.

We have given you two pictures here to prove how good a product we have. Speedy has the highest segment on the market with no .100 backer pad. You can use our barrel extensions to make the bit longer saving you time and money.
